

GENERAL INFO

Hunters generally arrive at the Edmonton International Airport on the Saturday and stay one night in a hotel near the airport at their own expense. We pick you up on Sunday around noon and from then on, you need not worry about a thing. The camp is about 2 hours from the airport. We supply your accommodations. You will enjoy home cooked meals including a hearty breakfast, a bagged lunch to take along on the hunt, and a delicious hot meal at the end of the day. All meals are cooked by a professional chef. The hunts generally go from Monday to Saturday. You will also require a hotel room the night before departure, as most often, Sunday's are reserved for travel time. we can make hotel reservations for you upon request.

In summary, I suggest that when making flight arrangements, you attempt to time your arrival on the Saturday and departure on the following Sunday.

WELCOME

Dear Hunter,

Thank you for your interest in our Outfitting service. In 2002, I began a partnership with Buck Mountain Outfitters, a well known outfitter in Alberta.

I have guided for Buck Mountain Outfitters for ten years and now I am assuming responsibility for all details pertaining to archery hunts.

HISTORY

We have been operating since 1988 catering primarily to rifle hunters.

Merv Purschke's Buck Mountain Outfitters, is very proud that out of some 100 clients per year (whitetail deer, mule deer, moose, bear, migratory birds) we continue to have 90% repeat clientele.

I am pleased to announce my new affiliation with long-time friend and guide, Wayne Zaft.

Our plan is to incorporate the same level of service, honesty and hard work into the archery hunts as has been provided in the past to our rifle hunters.
